Welcome to our captivating exhibition, where the interplay of light, shadow, and texture takes center stage.

Serena Amrein and Sascha Nordmeyer
invite you to explore their thought-provoking artworks, all meticulously crafted on paper. In this exhibition, the artists delve into the timeless allure of black and white.

Their works evoke a sense of purity, strong contrast, and quiet intensity. Each piece invites you to contemplate the essence of existence, stripped down to its fundamental elements. As you immerse yourself in these monochromatic worlds, consider the duality of existence—the yin and yang, the light and dark. Let the simplicity of black and white reveal profound truths.

Join us on this journey through the chiaroscuro of paper with
